THE BIG DRIVE OF DEMOCRATS

STATE CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE
PUTS IN FINAL LICKS.—GOS.
SIP FROM LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 18.—(Special)—For nearly a year observers of the European war have been waiting for the promised "big drive" that would win for one side or the other and bring the great struggle to an end. That drive has not come. But there is a drive just started in Kentucky, which, if copied and carried out by either of the contending forces in Europe, will end in victory. That is the drive that the Democratic campaign managers in Louisville have started to sweep across the goal line on November 2. Augustus Owsley Stanley and the rest of the Democratic ticket. In the language of the boys who use slang, it is "some drive" and, before it is over the Democratic path will be fairly strewn with Republican corpses.

The Democratic plan of campaign includes hurling at the enemy continually until the eve of election all the heavy oratorical artillery it possesses. The big Krupp 45 centimeter guns now in action are A. O. Stanley himself, rated as one of the greatest vote getters on the stump Kentucky has ever known, Hon. Harry V. McChesney, who is "going down the line" for the ticket; Senator Ollie M. James, Senator J. C. W. Beckham, Governor McCreary all the candidates on the state ticket; and many others. They will keep up an incessant bombardment on the fortifications of the enemy.

At the same time the field artillery, the shrapnel guns and the rifles are also at work. Major General Hager, through his field officers, the county campaign chairman, is marshalling his cavalry and infantry. They are all in camp, every man counted and prepared. On November 2, they will rush on the polls in one gigantic charge, covering the whole state and on the morning of November 3, they will count the dead and wounded Republicans and go back to their homes to rest for another year.

General Hager has sent word down the line that every Kentucky Democrat must do his duty. Every man must be at his post on election day. No excuses for staying at home will be accepted. The crops are all in. The shooting season does not begin until Nov. 15. If it rains—well, it rains alike on the just and the unjust. A wet skin never hurt a healthy man. This is the feeling of the campaign managers. They want General Overconfidence and General Apathy, the two commanders the Republicans are counting on most, to be ground into the earth by the individual Democratic soldiers.

If a voter thinks it is hard to get to the polls he might take the example of Stanley. Morrow had a date to speak at Hindman, Knott-co. Morrow got to Prestonsburg, Floyd-co., and found he would have to ride sixteen miles across the mountains on a mule to get to Hindman. He cancelled his speaking dates. Stanley arrived in Prestonsburg two weeks later on found the same situation confronting him. "Bring on your mule" said "A. O." The mule was brought forward. "Old emblem of Democracy, old tried and true friend of the farmer, if you'll carry me across these mountain roads, I'll ride you" said Stanley to the mule. "Ed Morrow broke his thumb trying to drive an automobile over these mountain roads. I'll break more than a thumb before I'll break my promise to the people of Hindman or the people of anywhere else. When I am elected governor I'll help build up these roads. Let's go." They went. The campaign managers figure that if Stanley can ride mules across mountains to keep speaking dates, the voters can hump their backs and get to the polls on election day.

Hon. H. V. McChesney at Shelbyville last week told a big crowd that the majority rules in the Democratic party, that the majority had spoken clearly in the primary, that as a Democrat he was supporting the entire ticket. He urged his friends who supported him in the primary to do the same thing. That the McChesney men will follow the men they worked so hard for in the primary is now a certainty and rumors of defection on their part have been completely exploded.

Around the Democratic headquarters in the Galt House appear all the signs of a real campaign. Prominent Democrats from all over the state are dropping in every day and with their help Judge Hager is checking up on conditions in every county. There is an air of confidence about all the leaders. They feel that the election of the entire ticket is a foregone conclusion if the Democratic vote comes out. They know that the full Republican vote will be cast, as the Republicans are working hard everywhere. Most of the county campaign chairmen are sending in good reports of conditions of their respective localities.

Arrangements for the special train which will carry distinguished speakers to both the western and eastern sections of the state during the last week of the campaign are now underway. Prominent Democrats from outside Kentucky who will be on the train are Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois; former Governor Cox of Ohio; Congressman J. Thomas Heflin of Indiana and Congressman Dixon of Indiana. They are all great speakers and Democrats who live in the cities and towns along the route of the special train have a rare treat in store for them.

ARRESTED IN OHIO IN MOREHEAD KILLING.

DEATH OF DR. C. F. REID.

Dr. C. F. Reid died at Erlanger, Ky., October 7th.

The above announcement fills us with surprise and sadness. We have had no particulars of the good man's going away, but supposed that he was on the road to health and renewed labor. Dr. Reid had done a man's work in home and foreign fields. He was all afame with his Lord's spirit. He did not rust out, he burned out. And not in vain. He set many a heart afire for God and souls. In all sorts of work he was approved and not ashamed. In the pastorate, on the platform before great masses of missionary workers, in the pulpit on conference anniversaries, in councils of church leaders, before our cabinets and boards, as Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement—indeed everywhere he was honored and masterful. It is hard to give up such leaders, as Drs. Alexander and Reid. Dr. Reid had been in feeble health since early in this year, and in May, at the annual meeting of the Board of Missions, he was granted an indefinite leave of absence and went to Erlanger, Ky. He returned to Nashville several weeks ago and entered actively upon his work, but he soon realized that his strength was not equal to the task, and only a few days previous to his death went back to the home of his sister, in Erlanger, Ky.—Central Methodist Advocate.

Reid preached at the M. E. Church South in this city two or three years ago and greatly delighted all who heard him.

TO ORGANIZE BIG TRUST CO.

Ben Head, for whom requisition was recently denied by the governor of Oklahoma, is organizing a big trust company in Oklahoma City, according to Deputy Sheriff Tom Gallaher, who went to Oklahoma City after Mr. Head, who was indicted by a Boyd-co. grand jury on a charge of having obtained money under false pretense, by selling Citizens Bank stock to M. W. Thomas above its real value.

When Mr. Gallaher arrived in Oklahoma City, the governor was away and the lieutenant governor refused to act in the case. When the governor returned Mr. Head's attorneys informed him that at the time the offense was alleged to have been committed, Mr. Head was in Oklahoma City. The governor asked Mr. Gallaher if he could prove to the contrary. The deputy sheriff told the governor that he did not come to Oklahoma City prepared to try the case there, but to present his requisition papers, which had been issued by the governor of Kentucky, and that the date on the indictment should be sufficient so far as all requisition purposes were concerned.

The governor, however, declared otherwise, and declined to honor the request of Governor McCreary that Mr. Head be given into the custody of the official representative of the county of Boyd.

Mr. Head has been joined in Oklahoma City by his wife and son.—Ashland Independent.

POINTS MADE BY SENATOR JAMES.

In the speech he is making for Owsley Stanley and the rest of the Democratic ticket Senator Ollie James points out that there are two types of bolters, one whom he terms the "courageous bolter," who "goes the whole hog" and votes the Republican ticket, and the other the "cowardly bolter," who stays at home on election day and does his party infinitely more harm than the one who boldly goes over to the Republican camp. Senator James further emphasizes the fact that there never was in all the history of Kentucky a Democrat more fairly nominated and more entitled to the support of every Democrat than Owsley Stanley.

DYNAMITE CAR WRECKED; DEPOT EMPLOYEES SPRINT.

Winchester, Ky., Oct. 14.—Employees of the Union Station here fled for their lives this afternoon when a C. & O. train crashed into an L. & N. freight car loaded with thirty-five cases of dynamite, and with as many boxes of powder. The wreck occurred near the ticket office, and it looked much as if the derailed dynamite car was going to be jammed into the station. The men in the ticket office didn't wait to see if the station was hit or not. They were far away before that could have happened. The impact of the collision was heard blocks from the station, but there was no explosion.

DR. BANFIELD BETTER.

Dr. A. P. Banfield, who was removed to the Huntington hospital on No. 2 Saturday afternoon is reported to-day as being very much better. Dr. Banfield is suffering from a badly infected limb as a result of fever several years ago, and since which has caused him much trouble. For a time the amputation of this member was feared necessary, but under the skillful medical attention of his attending physicians, the thought is about abandoned. Dr. Banfield is widely known throughout this section and his legion of interested friends will rejoice to learn of his improvement.—Independent.

CONGRESSMAN FIELDS SPOKE AT WEBBVILLE.

Judge Redwine and John M. Waugh could not fill their engagement to speak at Webbville last Saturday night without neglecting their duties in the Circuit Court at Grayson. The Frazier murder trial was on hands. Congressman Fields went to Webbville by request and the crowd that gathered was not disappointed.

A LUCKY JEWEL.

Opals as gems are said to be unlucky, but a Garnet drew the beautiful library rocker offered by Jake the Hebrew. Miss Garnet Bartram, with five tickets in Jake's big sale last Saturday held the winning number.

SENATOR JAMES' GREAT SPEECH

ADDRESSED VOTERS OF LAW- RENCE COUNTY AT LOUISA ON TUESDAY.

What was probably the best political speech ever heard in Lawrence county was delivered in the Court House last Tuesday afternoon. The speaker was the senior Senator from Kentucky, Ollie James. Senator James has a reputation as an orator and statesman which is national, and on this notable occasion he was at his best, notwithstanding the fact that for many days and nights he has been spreading the cause of Democracy and advocating the claims of the Democratic State ticket over nearly the whole Commonwealth of Kentucky. He dealt not only with State issues but with national questions as well, defending and eulogizing Governor McCreary and lauding the administration of President Wilson in the most glowing and eloquent terms. Senator James is justly proud of the fact that he has frequently had private audience with the President regarding the political business of the country.

It was to the condition of affairs in this State that Senator James addressed himself, and he did it so effectively and convincingly that, if he spoke elsewhere as he did here, that he must have won hundreds of votes for the ticket he is so ably championing. In argument the Senator was unanswerable, in his showing by fact and figures he was irrefutable, in sarcasm he was scathing, in logic he was faultless, and in genuine eloquence he was surpassing. It is easy to see how a speech like this could cause men to say, as many did, "That was the best speech I ever heard." But the fact is, no hastily written notice of the Senator's splendid effort can do it justice, and we refrain to appreciate it the speech must have been heard.

Senator James had a fine audience, in size and quality. The weather was inclement and the notice of the meeting very short, but Louisians turned out in large numbers and voters from every part of the county were present. Many ladies were present and the public school was dismissed for a couple of hours in order that the pupils might listen to a Kentucky orator.

That old wheel-horse of the Democratic band wagon, J. Q. Lackey, presided over the meeting, and C. B. Bromley introduced the distinguished speaker.

CAPT. STONE NAMED TO HEAD CONFEDERATES IN KENTUCKY.

Capt. William J. Stone, State Pension Commissioner, was elected commander of the United Confederate Veterans at their annual reunion at the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley.

Brigade commanders were chosen as follows: First, James Rogers, Bourbon county; third, Col. Thomas D. Osborne, Louisville; fourth, Geo. W. Taylor, Nicholasville. The absence of a second brigade commander was caused by the elevation of Col. Stone to the commandery.

Following the meeting a dinner was served by the members of the Confederate Home Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy.

PROBABLY FATAL ACCIDENT.

Pearly Wellman, age about 40 years, fell from a car of the electric street line in Huntington on Wednesday and received injuries from which it is said he can not possibly recover. He was an employee of the car company and was at work when the accident occurred. He fell on his head and fractured his skull. Wellman is a son of James Harvey Wellman, of this place, and has a wife and several children.

BUT THE PRESIDENT DID "SUITOR."

And now comes none other than F. J. Updike, of West Virginia and modestly deposes that he was the first sweetheart of the president's fiancee, Mrs. Galt, having bestowed upon her certain rosy checked apples during boyhood, and accompanied them by divers, bashful smiles; and he further deposes that said Mrs. Galt, or as the party of the second part was then known, Miss Bolling, looked none too favorably upon him. In other words, he was her first suitor, but didn't, so Mr. Wilson needn't be expected to work up much of a case of jealousy.

CONSULTS A SPECIALIST.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gunnell, Sr., and Miss Amanda Yates left yesterday on C. & O. train No. 3 for Cincinnati to consult a specialist in regard to the health of Mr. Gunnell.

For some time past the health of Mr. Gunnell has been on a gradual decline, thus causing his family deep concern, so they placed him in the care of the best physicians that can be secured with the hope of a speedy recovery.—Independent.

TIMBER SUIT SETTLED.

The Kentucky Coal Lands Company of New York won its suit in the Federal Court to-night against the General Development Company of Pennsylvania over an eight-mile boundary line of an immense timber and mineral tract in Letcher-co., near the Perry line. The suit involves many thousands of dollars worth of land, and has been on trial nearly two weeks.

FINE DONATION PARTY.

On Monday last the Rev. Olus Hamilton, pastor of the Baptist church, and Mrs. Hamilton had the surprise of their lives. The aforesaid members appeared at the parsonage early in the evening, each one bringing something good to eat. They came and brought and deposited until the place resembled a good sized wholesale grocery. Their donations were not measured by pounds but by bags and bushels, and they consisted of almost every conceivable thing comforting to the inner man—and woman. The high cost of living will not worry the recipients of so much food for many a day. It was most excellent in quality and abundance in quantity, and the worthy minister and his wife are appreciative and very grateful to every one who had a part in the liberal donations.

In this connection the publication of some facts and figures concerning Mr. Hamilton may be interesting. He is the youngest Baptist minister in point of years in the valley. He is also the youngest Baptist minister in point of years in the ministry in the valley. He is the oldest Baptist minister in point of location in the valley, starting in as 4th year. He is the oldest pastor in location of any denomination in Louisa. Has spoken in 19 different Baptist pulpits in Eastern Kentucky.

REFORMATORY.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 16.—Twelve thousand gallon cans of vegetables have been put up at the reformatory for the enjoyment of the prisoners this winter. The store includes corn, apples, tomatoes and beans. Warden Wells said the supply represents the equivalent of three months' provisions. The warden secured the assistance of an expert canner and found among the prisoners, Robert Sanders, who has had experience in canning plants and he was put in charge of the work. The reformatory in the next few months probably will reach a record breaking population, possibly 1,500. At present, there are 1,440 occupants for the 1,152 cells. The highest population has ever reached under Warden Wells has been 1,447.

DEATH OF MRS. MILLARD PETERS.

Mrs. Millard Peters, aged 26, died at her home near Clifford at an early hour Thursday morning after an illness of two weeks of typhoid fever. She is survived by three children, the youngest a child of six months. Her husband is also living. Mrs. Peters was the youngest daughter of Albert Ratcliff, who died about two years ago. Burial will occur on Friday at the old Ratcliff graveyard.

LIFE SENTENCE GIVEN ROBT. FRAZIER AT GRAYSON

MERCHANT CONVICTED OF MUR- DERING HIS NIECE IN CAR- TER COUNTY.

Robert Frazier was sentenced to the penitentiary for life at Grayson Monday for the murder of his sister's daughter, Stella Kenney, age 17, of Fleming-co. Frazier was a merchant and quite prosperous. His nieces had been visiting at his home for two or three months and on the second of last May he started in a buggy to take her to Fleming-co. Her dead body was found next day by the roadside near Olive Hill. Frazier claimed they had been assaulted and robbed. Proof showed that the girl was in a delicate condition and that Frazier was responsible. A letter written to a cousin, Dr. Stumbaugh, of Floyd-co., was very damaging to Frazier. This was the second trial, the jury having failed to agree in the first trial.

Frazier was a native of Floyd-co. His father sold his coal lands there for a large sum a few years ago and moved to Fleming-co.

BUT THE PRESIDENT

And now comes none other than F. J. Updike, of West Virginia and modestly deposes that he was the first sweetheart of the president's fiancee, Mrs. Galt, having bestowed upon her certain rosy checked apples during boyhood, and accompanied them by divers, bashful smiles; and he further deposes that said Mrs. Galt, or as the party of the second part was then known, Miss Bolling, looked none too favorably upon him. In other words, he was her first suitor, but didn't, so Mr. Wilson needn't be expected to work up much of a case of jealousy.

R. W. EMBREY DEAD.

The message reached here late Friday afternoon that Mr. R. W. Embrey had passed away that day at his home in Graham, Va. Mrs. Frank Tyree, a sister-in-law, was at the Embrey home at the time Mr. Embrey had for many months been in failing health and his death was not unexpected by relatives and friends. He was widely known in this city, where he resided for many years and where he married his first wife, Miss Little Hutchison, who preceded him in death several years ago. He leaves besides a widow, two daughters, Miss Embrey Derrick and Miss Katherine Embrey.—Sandy Valley Call.

NONAGENARIAN PASSES.

Maysville, Ky., Oct. 18.—Ezekiel Stone, ninety-one years old, said to be the oldest native-born resident of Lewis-co., died at his home in that county after a short illness of infirmities incident to old age. He was the father of Sheriff W. T. Stone, of Lewis-co., and leaves several relatives in this city.

SHOTS ARE FIRED ACROSS THE RIVER IN THE DARKNESS.

Brownsville, Tex., Oct. 18.—The first firing across the Rio Grande in more than three weeks occurred at 4 o'clock Sunday morning near the Mercedes pumping plant, thirty-five miles above here, when Mexicans fired from thirty-five to forty shots. The American soldiers returned the fire, but no one was hurt.

Capt. Hassan, of the Sixth Cavalry, in command there, reported to Fort Brown that a Mexican dance was in progress on the Mexican side where the shooting occurred, and that he did not believe the occurrence serious.

Col. A. P. Blockson, commander of the cavalry, reported the occurrence to J. J. Garza, Carranza consul here, and to J. H. Johnson, American consul at Matamoras, with requests that an investigation be made by Gen. Eugenio Lopez, commander at Matamoras.

Col. Blockson continues to spread his cavalry along the Rio Grande in the district affected by the raids. Constant vigilance is being maintained by military authorities.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE

IN ANNUAL SESSION.

Louisville, Oct. 19.—The 115th session of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Masons convened at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning with the usual impressive Masonic ceremonies. Grand Master George B. Winslow, of Carrollton, was in the chair, and Deputy Grand Master T. J. Adams, who at the end of the session will succeed as Grand Master, was at his right hand, according to the Masonic custom.

Mr. James N. Saunders, of Stanford, was in the Grand Senior Warden's post, while Earl W. Weathers, of Elkhorn, was in his place as Grand Junior Warden. Mr. Saunders will become Deputy Grand Master and Mr. Weathers Grand Senior Warden. As usual, there will be a spirited fight for the post of Grand Junior Warden, that office becoming Grand Master in three years without opposition.

Two Wayne Lads

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 12.—Final certificates have been issued to fifteen out of 32 men who took the examination on September 8, at Morgantown, for license to practice law in this state, according to announcement made by the state supreme court to-day.

Among the fifteen who were awarded certificates were C. W. Ferguson and J. W. Copley, both of Wayne-co.

Close Deal on Coal Land.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 12.—A deed was recorded here today showing the transfer of more than 12,000 acres of coal land from Cabin creek in Kanawha county from the Williams Coal Company and the Cabin Creek Kanawha Coal Co. to the Shonk Land Co. The consideration was $400 six per cent first mortgage bonds of the latter company, valued at $1,000 each and 200 shares of stock in the Shonk company.

48 Indictments in First Batch From Grand Jury.

The October term of Circuit Court opened on Monday. Judge Wilkinson presiding. After less than two days' deliberation the grand jury made its first report and turned in a batch of 48 indictments, including 34 for misdemeanor and fourteen for felony. Owing to the inability of Attorney John Mareum, of the defense, to be present the second trial of Millard Hale for the killing of Leslie Adkins, the first trial of which the last term of court resulted in a hung jury, was set for next Monday, October 18.

N. &amp; W. To Co-Operate With Wayne County Farmers.

President L. E. Johnson, of the Norfolk & Western Railway has written a letter to the governor of West Virginia, which has been made public, in which the railway president asks for suggestions by which the company can co-operate with the farmers and stock raisers of West Virginia in the development of the various agricultural industries.

Representatives of the road, co-operating with the county agricultural agent, have been doing a great amount of constructive work in Wayne-co. and it is proposed to extend the work into all parts of the state traversed by the N. & W. road.

Johnson said the management of the road appreciates the advantages which will accrue to the road from an increased traffic in farm products and as a result of the development of the farm lands and for that reason will do everything they can to encourage the work.

BREAKS A COLD IN FEW HOURS--TRY IT!

FIRST DOSE OF PAPE'S COLD COMPOUND RELIEVES ALL GRIPPE MISERY.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffing! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only 25 cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice and causes no inconvenience. Don't accept a substitute.

MOONLIGHT CURRICULUM

The curriculum of the Moonlight Schools has occupied the best thought of educators during the past few months. The reading will be based upon forestry, good roads, horticulture, agriculture, domestic science, health and sanitation, voting, banking, taxation and such things as the State has through its various commissions and departments been trying to impress upon the people.

As men and women learn to read they will become immediately familiar with the methods and movements which make for constructive work in the State acquiring the information most necessary to their well being and to the welfare of the States even as they acquire the art of reading. Drills in history—essential facts only, and geography and English will be part of the course, while the civil government will be a drill on laws most commonly violated. Writing will be a feature and will be taught in unusually attractive ways, especially devised for the moonlight schools. Any citizen, whether educated or uneducated, would profit by taking such a course.

IN MEMORY.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear papa, John H. Borgs, who died Sept. 13, 1915. Our hearts and home are broken, our home is home no more, since our darling papa left us, left us forever more. You have left us and we miss you, sadly we miss you from home. A shadow o'er the life is cast we miss the sunshine of the face, we miss thy kind and willing hands, thy fond and earnest care. Our home is dark without thee, we miss you everywhere. Gone, but not forgotten. A place is vacant in our home which never can be filled. All was done that loving hands could do, but it was the Lord's will to take him. We hope he is sleeping in Jesus' arms. He trusted in his Lord, and loved to go to meeting so well. He went every chance as long as he was able. Won't there be a happy meeting when we all get there. He leaves a wife, three children, father, two brothers, two sisters and a host of friends to mourn his loss. HIS LOVING WIFE & CHILDREN.

Oscar Endicott came down Sunday from Prestonsburg to visit his parents.

IN THE STOCK BARN.

Take all manure and soiled litter out of the horse stable each morning. Much of the straw can be dried during the day on a rack and used again.

Keep a trough or tank of clean water in every pig pasture.

The sheep flock must have shade and shelter during the hot days of summer. Be sure it is provided.

Separate the pigs in uniform lots. The larger always rob the smaller ones.

Get all wethers and lambs in the market as soon as fit. A good article never goes a-begging in a good market.

More than 500 veterinary surgeons have signed a petition condemning the tight check-rein as painful to horses and productive of disease.

REGARD FOR THE LAW.

Ignorance of the Law is no excuse and disregard of the law is a crime.

When Laws are so obnoxious as to afford excuses for non-compliance they should be changed, and the people have this right. "If your right hand offend you, cut it off," was no idle injunction, but means the offense should be removed rather than the mutilation of the member.

Our Tax Laws are distasteful and detrimental, but the remedy should be to amend them instead of allowing them to undermine the morals of the people by openly disregarding them.

The successful evasion of one Law may encourage the violation of others and in time breed a contempt for all Laws.

While every citizen owes obedience to the Laws, the Laws should be made fair and equal to every citizen.

The Tax Laws are neither fair nor equal and are productive of deceit and dishonesty and if for no other reason than this should be changed.

STAMPING OUT FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE

(Prepared by United States department of agriculture.)

Farmers, cattle owners, cattle dealers and county and state live stock sanitary officers are being urged by the United States department of agriculture to continue further effective cooperation for measures that will assist in keeping the foot and mouth disease under control.

It is highly important that the seriousness of this most contagious of animal diseases shall not be disregarded, and if every one will exercise a little patience as to necessary quarantine regulations and will co-operate heartily with the state and federal authorities it may be possible to say in the near future that the United States has been entirely freed from this plague, which so seriously threatened our great live stock industry.

Cases of foot and mouth disease are still reported from time to time, and as long as these sporadic occurrences continue the epidemic, which first made its appearance in Michigan in 1914, cannot be considered entirely under control. Carelessness may now undo the work of eight months and force the country to face once more the greatest danger that has ever threatened its live stock. By the immediate slaughter of all animals known to have been exposed to the infection, by the thorough disinfection of all premises and articles that might harbor the contagion, by the imposition of federal and state quarantines and by close inspection of cattle for shipment the disease has been brought under fair control. These measures must be persisted in, however, until the last atom of infection has been destroyed beyond a doubt.

Farmers and stockmen are unquestionably inconvenienced by the quarantines which restrict and regulate the movement of their stock. The necessity for these regulations cannot be realized until the extreme contagiousness of the disease is understood. Once a single animal of the herd gets foot and mouth disease or where an infected animal is introduced into a clean herd every animal in that herd is almost sure to contract it. Cattle, swine, sheep and goats are the chief sufferers, but the disease may be conveyed not only by them, but by any article which comes into contact, no matter how indirectly, with an infected animal.

Men, women and children may carry the contagion on their shoes, clothing and hands. Dogs, cats, rats, chickens and pigeons may pick it up from the ground and carry it to another farm. Raw skinnings may transmit the disease, and hay and manure may easily be infected and made dangerous. In many cases farmers who have been induced by curiosity to inspect their neighbor's stricken herd have carried the contagion back with them to their own stock. In short, the foot and mouth disease is the most contagious of all animal diseases. To be effective against it a quarantine must be not only proportionately strict, but it must be continued until all danger of spreading the disease has passed. A quarantine that is lifted too soon is as useless as one that is not enforced.

Not only live stock, but such articles as hides, boofs, skins, hair, horns, hay, straw and similar fodder, manure, litter, etc., may convey the contagion. In consequence the exportation of such articles without previous disinfection is prohibited in the exposed and closed areas. In the case of animal products, however, taken from animals before Aug. 1, 1914, and stored since that date away from all live stock, shipment without disinfection is permitted on affidavit that these conditions have been complied with. Hay and straw harvested before this date east of the Mississippi and before October 1 west of the Mississippi and stored in places away from live stock and not within five miles of any premises infected with the disease, also may be shipped on the same conditions. Other hay and straw must be first disinfected with formalin gas.

UNIFORM TAXATION.

Property differs so greatly in character and earning power it has always been impossible to tax the various kinds uniformly.

Every attempt to tax movable property the same as immovable property has failed and will always fail. Two wrongs do not make a right, and when assessors find it impossible to discover the ownership of movable property and undertake to square things by lowering the assessment of immovable property, there is no right or justice in it and Singing is progressing nicely at this place.

Prayer meeting at this place every Sunday night.

The farmers of this place are all busy cutting corn.

We have got some excellent roads in our section.

There was church at this place the 16th, and 17th of Oct.

The hustling merchants of Adeline are doing a thriving business.

Mr. Allen Fannin was the guest of Miss Ruth Bellomy Saturday night.

Rozella, Goldie Bellomy and Maude Miller were shopping in Ashland last Saturday.

Bela Bellomy and Johnnie Petry were guests of Gertrude Miller Sunday.

TWO BLACK EYES.

YATESVILLE.

A great many automobiles have grazed this section of our road lately.

G. J. Carter and wife took their little son George J. to Catlettsburg on Thursday of last week and had a small growth removed that was just over his right eye. They were accompanied by Dr. Carter. The operation was successfully performed by Dr. Prichard. The patient was brought back home and is doing well at this writing.

B. J. Chaffin and his brother Charley drove from our place into our vicinity Sunday.

Attorney May of Louisa was here one day last week.

Miss Helen Carter and her brother master Burgess, were with friends and relatives here several days of last week.

There are now four new oil wells being drilled in our vicinity and the territory on which they are being drilled extends from the land of A. Colinsworth at Deep Hole Branch to the land of W. T. Kane just above Fallsburg.

Birch Hulett sold a fine mule colt for $50.00. The purchaser was Billy Fannin of East Fork.

Misses Nellie and Jamie Lyons of Olovina are visiting their sister Mrs. Amos Cordell this week.

Owing to the very wet days but few went out from here to hear the Democratic speaking.

The Democratic ticket for City Council of Louisa is a good one. The names are at the head of this column.

Vote for Rev. H. B. Hewlett for Circuit Court Clerk. He is conducting the office in the right way and deserves re-election.

Every Democrat in Lawrence county who goes to the polls Nov. 2nd will vote the Democratic ticket, and every one of them should go.

Judge Redwine has been twice appointed to short terms as Circuit Judge. He is now asking the voters for an endorsement at the polls for the first time.

Miss Cora Dow, a noted business woman of Cincinnati, is dead. At one time she owned 11 drug stores in the city where she lived. She was a thorn in the flesh of her competitors.

Contracts for sixteen submarines and six destroyers, to cost $4,925,443, were awarded by the Navy Department, and go on record as the biggest step of the kind in the history of the country.

Gen. Carranza will be formally recognized as Chief of the de facto Government of Mexico to-day, details having been agreed upon at a conference of the Pan-American conferees yesterday.

It would not hurt some newspaper headline artists to sit behind a spelling book and grammar a few minutes daily. Weakness along this line is not by any means confined to the rural roosters.

Judge Redwine and Commonwealth's Attorney John M. Waugh have been prevented by their duties in court from making a canvass of the district. It is to their credit that they stick to their post of duty and will not lose them any votes.

There is not a more competent prosecutor in Kentucky than John M. Waugh. He has both the ability and the experience necessary to properly prosecute lawlessness and he also has the courage required for this responsible position.

From the Republican headquarters in Louisville came the report that the Republicans are counting on Democratic over confidence and apathy this year to land Ed Morrow under the wire a winner.

Vote early, Democrats, and show 'em where they're wrong.

The managers at republican headquarters in Louisville have instructed their workers in the rural districts to use every effort to make a gain of at least four in every precinct in the state, which they say, in addition to the democratic apathy will insure the election of the republican ticket. Democrats, do you catch on?

In one of his speeches Mr. Stanley says: "The eyes of the President look down upon you. Where, of where, is the democrat at this crucial hour, who will prove recalcitrant to his mighty chief? Inspiring as a candidate, greater as a patient and constructive statesman, he is greatest as the wise, fearless, far seeing diplomat, preserving at once inviolate the honor of his country and the peace of half the world."

Senator Ollie M. James made a big hit at Louisa and Pikeville, as he does at every other place he speaks. One of the forceful things he said that was greeted with vociferous applause was that the United States is blessed beyond measure by having Woodrow Wilson for President, at a time when the war spirit is running so high in the world. He declared that under like conditions Roosevelt would have bulged into war and Taft would have blundered into it.

The speakers' bureau of the Democratic State headquarters failed to notify any one in Lawrence county about the appointment of Senator James to speak at Louisa on Tuesday of this week. No announcement of the date was seen in any of the city or local newspapers. As Senator James passed through here on his way to Pikeville Sunday evening he told some one that he was scheduled to speak at Louisa on Tuesday. Local Democrats then got busy and advertised the fact as well as possible on Monday. It was a regrettable and unfortunate oversight.

Mr. McChesney, in his speech at Lawrenceburg, declared that the result of the primary had not changed his views on prohibition, and that he expected some time in the future to see a Statewide amendment submitted to the people.

"But," he declared, "so far as this election is concerned this question has been settled. The issue was submitted to the Democracy of the State in the primary, and a majority decided that this was not the time to submit the question. I entered the primary in good faith, and I accept the result as a good Democrat ought, and shall give the whole ticket my loyal support. 'Majority rule' is a cardinal principle of Democracy, and for this campaign the majority has spoken, and every Democrat should vote the straight ticket."

When you go to vote on November 2nd remember the two amendments to the constitution. They read as follows:

Constitutional Amendment No. 1.

Are you in favor of the proposed Constitutional Amendment which will allow the use and employment of convict labor outside of the walls of the penitentiary for the purpose of constructing or reconstructing and maintaining public roads and bridges and preparing material for public roads and bridges, and work on the State farm or farms?

Constitutional Amendment No. 2.

Are you in favor of the proposed Constitutional Amendment to Section 171 of the Constitution of Kentucky, which proposed amendment will extend the power to the General Assembly to enact laws to divide property into classes for the purpose of taxation and to determine what class or classes of property shall be subject to local taxation, and to exempt from taxation bonds of the State and of Counties, municipalities, and taxing and school districts, and which amendment provides that laws passed pursuant to said amendment shall be subject to the referendum power of the people?

I remembered what you said about forgetting and tried to be as thoughtful as possible. I neglected, though, to have my trunk rechecked at the junction, and think I must have left my lunch at the window when I bought my ticket.

I must have forgotten my umbrella, too, when I changed cars, but I cannot imagine what could have become of my shawl. I suppose I neglected to put my comb and brush back in the bag after using them, but I feel confident that some one stole my jet brooch, as I do not see how I could possibly have mislaid it.

I got on quite nicely, though, and had a real pleasant journey.—Youth's Companion.

Following the custom of two previous election campaigns, the Democratic managers have under consideration the plan of sending out a special campaign train during the closing week of the fight. Tentative plans provide for at least two days' incursion in Eastern Kentucky and the same in the territory west of Louisville. If the "Democratic Special" is run it will have on board the candidates for State officers, the United States Senators, Congressmen, Gov. McCreary, and several national party figures. Rallies are contemplated wherever the train makes stops and in this way it is expected to close the campaign in a wave of enthusiasm. While a campaign train has never been run in Eastern Kentucky, this method of arousing the Democrats has proved eminently successful in the western section of the State and served to bring out a full vote. The managers believe that a "Democratic Special" run through Eastern Kentucky would be worth thousands of votes to the ticket.

She Remembered.

Aunt Jane is quite absent minded and when she started on a short journey, a few weeks ago, each member of the family labored to impress on her that she must not forget any of her parcels or belongings. When she reached her destination she wrote at once of her safe arrival and closed with the following postscript:

I remembered what you said about forgetting and tried to be as thoughtful as possible. I neglected, though, to have my trunk rechecked at the junction, and think I must have left my lunch at the window when I bought my ticket.

I must have forgotten my umbrella, too, when I changed cars, but I cannot imagine what could have become of my shawl. Double Duty.

An English sportsman—they call a man sportsman in England when he has money and nothing to do—has hit upon a very clever idea. He owns an automobile and a yacht. When he wants to use his yacht he runs the automobile aboard and harnesses it to the propeller. Then he tips off the self starter, the auto gets busy, the propeller churns the water, and the plain yacht becomes a fast motorboat. When the sportsman gets where he wants to go he ties up the yacht, runs the auto ashore and gayly whizzes along the good roads. Of course, to be perfectly fair about it, the sportsman should take the yacht aboard the auto when he is on land, but up to the present time he has shown no willingness to display any such form of altrumism. He's got a good idea, however. Pampered autos have too long been permitted to go aboard as stowaways. It's high time they were compelled to work their passage.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

As a barefoot boy he followed a raper in vacation time, tying up wheat bundles at fifty cents a day. As a young man he taught school to earn money to prepare himself for the law. As a young lawyer he battled his way to the top of the bar of Kentucky, solely on his own merits. In the legislative halls in Washington he continued to show the same driving power. Knocked back now and again, he drew breath and plunged in again. He has arisen to crisis after crisis instead of being overwhelmed by them.

Is it better to have, at the helm of the ship of state of Kentucky a luck-conquering man of the Stanley type or a child of fortune who wins only when fortune smiles? We think the voters of Kentucky will know how to answer this question on November 2.

You never can tell what you are going to get when hunting. Congressmen Fields came down to Cynthiana last week hunting for votes for the State ticket and flushed a covey of seven candidates for postmaster—Cynthiana Democrat.

Coats, supervisor of rural schools, spoke in the morning on "The Country School of To-morrow," and declared that today the average country boy is not as well nourished as the average city boy; that his eyes are not as good; that the schools have not trained him for his particular place in American life, though it is on him that the burdens of the future are to fall. Rural poverty, rural greed that has beeniggardly toward the schools, through lack of a sense of responsibility and petty politics he blamed for this condition.

Prof. McHenry Rhoads, State Supervisor of High Schools, in an address on education for larger service, took occasion to defend the school system from the destructive criticism of many writers of today, pointing out that the critics themselves are the products of the system; that the progress and development of present-day civilization are the results of educational work, and that the good, which exists, has been produced by it, and the evil exists not by reason of, but in spite of, the system.

Asks Constructive Criticism.

That it can be improved and is being improved he admitted; but insisted that constructive criticism that would build upon the good of the system and not destroy it, is welcomed.

Praise Moonlight Schools.

Addressing the association this afternoon on the subject of "Moonlight Schools," Congressman J. Campbell Cantrell said that he considered the work of eradicating illiteracy, instituted by Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, the most important project undertaken in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and urged the teachers to co-operate in an effort to eradicate it from their own districts in order that the time may speedily come when there will not be an adult person in the Seventh congressional district unable to read and

FORTUNES IN ARIZONA FARMS.

In the Yuma Valley (Yuma, Arizona) Arizona where the U. S. Government has constructed the greatest irrigation project in the world farmers are reaping great fortunes. This is possible because of unlimited water supply, superior soil, and climate which produces crops twelve months in the year, continual spring growing and harvesting season.

A FARM FOR SALE:—40 acres, 3 miles from city of Yuma,  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile from church,  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile from general store,  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile from good graded school, located on fine boulevard; 20 acres alfalfa and seed crop this year from this 20 acres sold at the machine on the land for \$1800.00, and the hay balance of the year fed 30 Holstein milk cows and other stock on farm which ranged on the remaining 20 acres of meadow, and besides feeding the stock sold from the same 20 acres \$100 worth of hay. These cows, bought on time, paid for themselves in just two years. The ranch is yours for \$8000, when it is really worth twelve thousand dollars. The only reason for selling is the owner, a widow, 73 years old, desires to retire for her declining days. We have a hundred bargains for you. Write for literature and complete description of this or other tracts for less money. Leave the cold blizzards of the east, and come to the most prosperous and delightful country in the world, come to perpetual sunshine and happiness. YUMA VALLEY, ARIZONA, where the farmers are the bankers. Address McCLEURE REALTY, LOAN & TRUST CO., 352 Second St., YUMA, ARIZONA. 19-22-2m0.

WHAT INTELLIGENT LABOR CAN DO.

Mr. Clinton S. Kimes, who spent some time in this city last summer, sends the following interesting note from Wolfe county:

J. B. McCoy, aged 89 years, has about 200 square feet of land. On 80 square feet of this he raised and sold over $100.00 worth of garden products. He rented 1/4 acre and raised 25 bushels of shelled corn.

Mr. McCoy has 50 hens and in 60 days they laid 1575 eggs. They are common hens, but well fed.

One cow produced 427 pounds butter. He keeps two cows and sells lots of cream and butter. About 7 years ago Mr. M. L. Conley gave Mr. McCoy the privilege of erecting a 4-room cottage on this place, near Helechawa Station, Wolfe-co. He had it fenced and it is quite a beauty spot that can be seen as trains pass by. This shows what can be done by intelligent industry and good management.

To Whom It May Concern:

I take pleasure in saying that I have known W. T. Cain of Louisa, Ky., who is now a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney on the Republican ticket, for thirty years, and have been intimately associated with him from boyhood, and have been associated with him in an official way. He was County Attorney of Martin County while I was Circuit Judge, and he has practiced in my court for twelve years. He is sober, industrious and a good lawyer. He is fearless and honest, and will take care of the interests of the people, if elected.

THE HOME CIRCLE AND ITS INTERESTS

Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

Be Kind to Your Mother.

Mrs. Wood-White.

Oh, Johnnie, be kind to your mother. Remember how tender and true, thru all the long years of your childhood.

She ever has been unto you. And now you are passing to manhood, Your presence should shelter and aid.

The friend who has guided your footsteps.

Oh, Johnnie, be true to your mother—The false to the rest of mankind—For if the whole world should forsake you,

That mother would bear you in mind.

That mother would cherish the wayward.

Would pray for the wandering son, Would cling to you firmly and fondly, No matter the wrong you have done.

Oh, Johnnie, be strong for your mother—Whenever temptations assail,

Resist, to your utmost endeavor—

A courage that never shall fail,

Her prayers are ascending to Heaven,

Like incense, by night and by day,

That you may be guarded from danger.

And guided along the right way.

Oh, Johnnie, take care of your mother—

Her steps have grown feeble and slow;

Your strong arm should shield and support her.

As on thru life's journey you go—Then after that journey is ended—

In the land of the leal and the true,

Where pearly gates stand ever open—

One friend will be waiting for you.

His Tribute to Women.

No matter what one may think of the philosophy of Robert G. Ingersoll, one must admit that he stands out prominently as an American who was a master in the use of the English language. The following is his oft-quoted tribute to Women:

"It takes a hundred men to make an encampment, but one woman can make a home. I not only admire women as the most beautiful object ever created, but I reverence her as the redeeming glory of humanity, the sanctuary of all the virtues, the pledge of all perfected qualities of heart and head. It is not just nor right to lay the sins of men at the feet of women. It is because women are so much better than men that their faults are considered greater. A man's desire is the foundation of his love, but a woman's desire is born of her love. The one thing in this world that is constant, the one peak that rises above all clouds, the one window in which the light forever burns, the one star that darkness cannot quench, is woman's love. It rises to the greatest heights, it sinks to the lowest depths. It forgives the most cruel injuries. It is perennial of life and grows in every climate. Neither coldness nor neglect, harshness nor cruelty can extinguish it. A woman's love is the perfumer of the heart. This is the real love that subdues the earth; the love that has wrought all miracles of art; that gives us music all the way from the cradle song to the grand closing symphony that bears the cloud away on wings of fire. A love that is greater than power, sweeter than life and stronger than death."

How To Succeed.

Twenty clerks in a store, twenty hands in a printing office, twenty apprentices in a ship yard, twenty young men in a village—all want to get along in the world, and expect to do so. One of the clerks will become a partner, and make a fortune; one of the compositors will own a newspaper and become an influential citizen; one of the apprentices will become a master builder; one of the young villagers will get a handsome farm, and live like a patriarch—but which one is the lucky individual? Lucky? There is no luck about it. The thing is almost as certain as the rule of three. The young fellow who will surpass his competitors is he who masters his business, who preserves his integrity, who lives purely and cleanly, who devotes his leisure to the acquisition of knowledge, who gains friends by deserving them, and who saves spare money. There are some ways to fortune shorter than this old dusty highway; but the staunch man of the community; the man who achieves something really worth having—good fortune, good name, a serene old age—goes in this hard, dusty road.

Keep a strict account of both profits and expenses; be careful to keep the first in advance of the last until the point of independence is reached, and you will most certainly avoid the dreadful fate heretofore so common to nine-tenths of the foolish voyagers upon uncertain seas of business.

Let your industry never grow weary; keep your faithful servant, economy, ever on guard, and should no unforeseen disaster overwhelm you, your voyage will most surely be a successful one.

Corn Limpers! Use "Gets-It" and Smile!

Corns Come Right Off Clean and Quick! You Needn't Limp, or Fuss With Your Corns Any More!

What's the use of spoiling a good time for yourself by limping around with fierce corns? It's one of the easiest things in the world now, to get rid of them. "Gets-It" does it.

"These Corns Come Right Off, Clean As Whistle, by Using 'Gets-It'!"

the new way. That's why "Gets-It" leads the corn remedy of America, the living, acting corn remedy in the world, preferred by millions. Do you remember that the saying save to yourself that the handling bandage you've done with kill all the ears and scabs? Well, now, the "Gets-It" is more simple. It's like this: the corn is doomed, says. So is every callus, wart or bunion. Never cut them off, or cauterize them. Just use the "Gets-It," and nothing is necessary but using "Gets-It." Use it, tonight and end your corns.

"Gets-It" is sold by all druggists, etc., and sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death."

Medicines patched me up for awhile, but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle; I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

MARIE.

OBITUARY.

The sun was sinking in the west, the death angel came to the home of James Compton and chose for its victim his darling wife, Dora. She had been sick only a few days and her almost sudden death was a shock to her many friends and relatives, but we feel sure that our loss is heaven-gain for she was converted, joined the church and was baptized some time ago, and during her sickness she prayed almost continually and said she was going to heaven.

She left a husband, four children and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was a daughter of W. V. Roberts, deceased. She was a loving wife, a kind mother and a good neighbor, therefore she will be greatly missed in the community in which she lived, but I would say to the bereaved weep not as those that have no hope but prepare to live again after this life is over.

Call not back the dear departed.

Anchored safe where storms are over.

For on border land we left her.

Soon to meet and part no more.

A RELATIVE.

TUSCOLA.

The heavy rains have washed the roads and made plenty of mud holes which will be apt to stay with us all winter.

Last Saturday evening three auto-trucks loaded with human freight passed here en route to Webberville where something in the way of a political gathering was called. They were gone only a short time which shows how easily some matters are disposed of.

Rev. Cassidy preached a very interesting sermon here Sunday evening.

It was a great shock to the writer to hear of the dissolution of his warm friend Talmage Holton of Blaine. He was a model young man and was the same in the school room, on the farm, in church or Sunday school, modest and unassuming and always ready to do his part in any good work.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family. God bless them.

After a lingering illness of several months the death angel came Saturday night to relieve James Coffey of his suffering. He bore his sufferings with great patience and had his hopes centered on a life beyond this world which will be unknown and death never comes.

His wife died several years ago leaving him with several little children to which he was both father and mother till they grew to manhood and womanhood.

He sleeps by the side of his wife to wait the resurrection morn when he will come forth to be crowned with immortality and live forever.

The infant child of Flem Kitchen has been sick for some few days.

There will be church at Dennis the ninth Saturday night by Rev. Cassidy.

At Compton on the fifth Sunday by Rev. Berry. Also at Compton the first Saturday night in November and the Sunday following at Mrs. Elizabeth Pennington's by Rev. Parker and Hawk and others.

Lutheran Webb visited Dora Kitchen Sunday.

Mrs. James Rice is on the sick list.

Milton Hunnicutt was on our creek last week.

Sophia Pennington has been on the sick list.

Several from here attended the ball game at Green Valley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Pennington and children have been visiting friends and relatives at Willard.

The festival was largely attended at Polly's chapel last Saturday night.

just hands you home-made questions like these:

Here is Casimiro Irado, 104 years old, who lives in Watsonville, Cal. He has a remarkable memory and clearly recalls his wife in Spain in 1822, when he was but 12 summers. Irado has been a smoker all his life, and today he seeks no dearer, no truer friend than his old jimmy pipe. Irado has just been elected a member of the Prince Albert "old-time jimmy-pipers club."

Well, that's P. A., no matter how you hook it up—pipe or cigarette. It just jams-joy into your system! You nail that fact hot off the bat, because it's case-cards information! And handed out to you for personal and immediate attention as being about as real and true as you've heard since Hector was a pup!

P. A. is sold in the toppy red bag for the price of a jitney ride, 5c; tidy red tin, 10c; pound and half-pound tin humidores—and—the classy pound crystal-glass humidor with the sponge-moistener top that's not only a joy'us thing to have at home and at the office, but it keeps P. A. in the highest state of perfection.

LETCHER COUNTY AND WHITESBURG.

What is Happening in this Rich Coal Territory of Kentucky.

WHITESBURG, KY., Oct. 20.—State Forester J. E. Barton spent several days in Letcher county the past week looking after the protection and care of the forests of this section, as well as the recent organization of the Eastern Kentucky Forest Protective Association formed at Jenkins in the coal fields.

Mr. Barton is one of the busiest men in the state at this time, as he is determined that the forests, the native hardwoods of this country must be protected and saved from the wanton outrages that annually destroy and waste so much valuable young timber.

The organization at Jenkins is doing a good work already and the future will show this to be an important factor in the preservation of our forests. The first lookout station to be built in the mountains has been completed by the association far back in the Cumberland mountains several miles from Jenkins at a point near the Virginia border line.

Judge James M. Roberson, of Pikeville, who will, within a few days close an important special term of the Pike Circuit Court at Pikeville, has set down a special term for Letcher county to be held here beginning November 8, when an effort will be made to clear the docket of its much congested condition. A large number of interesting and important cases, pending for years will be tried out at the special term.

Chestnut is reported unusually abundant in sections of this county, especially around the headwaters of the creeks penetrating the Cumberland or Pine Mountain section. Many people are daily going and picking up vast quantities of them. Prof. and Mrs. Eastham of the Whitesburg public schools went into the Cumberland Mountain Saturday and gathered a fine lot for winter.

A goodly number of people of the county, especially the section around Jenkins and McRoberts, the coal fields, went to Pikeville Monday to hear the Hon. Ollie M. James expound pure old democracy in its simplicity. They were pleased with the big Senator from Kentucky. Ollie James usually gets crowds.

At this time it looks as if politics is warming up to a considerable extent. On Saturday Judge James P. Lewis, of this city, candidate for Secretary of State on the republican ticket had an appointment to speak here, but something unforeseen called him to Flemingsburg where he spoke that night to a large crowd.

Following Judge Lewis Hon. Thomas L. Walker, of Lancaster, republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor

WEST VIRGINIA POLITICAL GOSSIP.

From down in the southern section of the state comes the gossip that Hugh Ike Shott, Bluefield editor, is trimming his sails for another contest for the Congressional nomination with Representative Edward Cooper, of Bramwell, the wealthy coal operator of Mercer county. Since the primary election of 1914, when Cooper won over Shott, the district has been revamped by legislative act, Cabell and Raleigh counties having been taken from the Fifth District. Shott made a strong showing in the contest of 1914, although he had practically the entire Republican organization of the district, and many outside of the district, opposed to his candidacy. His friends feel that his chances have been considerably improved, both by the redistricting enactment and the exigencies of politics during the last year.

Senator Wells Goodykoontz, of Williamson, in a recent declaration, gave voice to an utterance which may finally result in the settlement of the Virginia debt controversy. Senator Goodykoontz, who was the administration floor leader in the State Senate during the recent sessions of the Legislature, expressed the conviction that the people themselves should be permitted to determine whether or not they will pay the recent judgment of approximately $13,000,000 which the Supreme Court of the United States apportioned to West Virginia at the conclusion of the debt suit.

Senator Goodykoontz also declared that he saw no reason for assembling the Legislature in special session to tackle the debt problem, but stated that it was within the province of the bondholders to demand the Board of Public Works to lay a sufficient levy to pay the judgment against West Virginia. This action, however, will hardly be undertaken.

Cabell county may provide the next Democratic nominee for State Auditor. At the present hour two Democrats of considerable prominence in that county are mentioned as probable candidates. The veteran Democrat F. F. McCullough, who served several terms as County Clerk of Cabell county, has been started by his friends as a candidate for the Auditorship, while Charles R. Wilson, whose name was recently connected with the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Cabell county, has under consideration the advisability of being a candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Auditor.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

PIKEVILLE COLLEGE STARTS ENDOWMENT FUND.

Dr. J. F. Record, President of Pikeville College, is preparing a campaign to raise an endowment fund of $100,000 for the institution. From a certain man of means in Kentucky (whose name is being withheld, but who has in past years contributed very liberally to the college) comes the offer of $5,000 to be given as soon as $15,000 is raised from other sources, to make the first $20,000 step on the endowment. The college expects to be able to raise the fund successfully within the next year.

BALL TEAM.

The team of the Christian church engaged the former Methodists in a ball game at the Ball Park last Saturday afternoon. The game was a victory once more for the Christians.

For this season there will be very little more sport activities. At the present time a good many of the city's best players are out of town, and only the amateur teams are left to carry on the work. For these reasons and the additional reason that cold weather is not far distant, the ball season for this year may be considered closed.

JUDGE LEAVES BENCH.

The Pike Circuit Court been in session here during the past six weeks, and this will be Judge J. M. Roberson's last court to be held at Pikeville, unless a special term. His last term of the district will be held at Whitesburg; Letcher-co., beginning Nov. 9th.

During his term as specially appointed Judge of the 35th district Judge Roberson has served with dignity and honor upon the bench. He had but one idea, and that was justice, and to administer that he would sacrifice the letter of the law. His greatest political ambition seems not to have been personal aggrandizement, but that he might be instrumental in purifying the ballot in Pike-co.—that great and almost insuperable task. Already his work in this respect has borne fruit. While he has not been successful in this undertaking as viewed from the point of legal construction, his motives were of righteous character, and the failure was due to a weakness of the law, as pointed out by the Court of Appeals in reversing the bribery cases. Both Judge Butler and Mr. Hays, the candidates of their respective parties for Circuit Judge to succeed Roberson, we feel, are equally zealous of ridding our county of the taint of ballot corruption, which through years of practice has become so firmly rooted in our political system that the strongest moral courage and conviction must be in the official mind, and resolutely backed by the public sentiment to put an end to it.

WILL ATTEND SYNOD.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ratliff, Mrs. T. M. Perry and Mrs. Margaret Phelps, being descendants of Richard Wells, will attend the reunion of the Wells descendants to be held at the burial place of Richard Wells in Johnson county November 13.

This will perhaps be the greatest family gathering event ever held in the Sandy Valley, and it will be a memorial to one of the oldest and best known families in the valley, as well as to the honored ancestor who was a Revolutionary soldier, and who died in Johnson-co. nearly 100 years ago.

The three ladies to attend from Pikeville are great granddaughters of the celebrated soldier of the Revolution, and they are thoroughly familiar with the history of the Wells family from the time of their immigration from England. Circuit Judge J. M. Roberson is also a descendant of this well known family; but on account of the fact that at the date of the memorial meeting he will be in the midst of a term of the Letcher Circuit Court at Whitesburg, it will be impossible for him to attend.

SENATOR JAMES SPOKE AT PIKEVILLE.

Senator Ollie James arrived at this place last Sunday on his speaking tour of the state and addressed an enormous gathering of people here Monday afternoon. The spacious circuit court room was packed to hear the great senator Democrat give utterance to his views on the coming campaigns state and national. One of the striking features of his great address was a beautiful eulogy on Woodrow Wilson delivered as part of the closing of his address. It was one of the most delicate and masterful examples of oratory that a Pikeville audience has ever listened to.

The Tabernacle was crowded to the limit Sunday night, and many were turned away. The same great crowd has been on hand during the past week, and about fifty persons from Pikeville attended each meeting daily.

Many persons from Prestonsburg and Paintsville attended this speech.

APPELLATE COURT THINKS TAVERNS UNNECESSARY.

In considering the appeal of certain West Virginia litigants who wanted to establish taverns in the Blackberry precinct of Pike-co. for the sale of liquor near the frontier line of the dry state of West Virginia, the court in affirming the Pike Circuit court, had this to say:

The people of the State of West Virginia voted in favor of prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors in that state, and soon thereafter these appellants, upon discovering that the sale of whiskey by retail in Blackberry precinct in Pike county, Kentucky, just across the little Tug river from West Virginia, might be permitted if license could be obtained to operate a tavern with this privilege proceeded to make application for the license involved in these appeals. It seems that before the State of West Virginia went dry it had never occurred to these appellants, or any one else, that the accommodation of the traveling public required the setting up of taverns in Blackberry precinct at the places designated by with the words of faith, "Come in, Lord;" but Satan stood squarely across the doorway with his chains, and according to Mr. Justice a thousand impish swarmed into the room. Justice instantly went upon his knees for mercy and his cries and wailing kept the neighbors awake all night, and many others, when they heard his story, spent the night with him in prayer from 11 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Reynolds reached his home the next afternoon to help him, and conversion came at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Justice is certain that Satan called at his home, and his story is supported by his wife and Mr. Reynolds, two christian people. He will listen to no contradiction, and firmly believe that God had to lift the lid to give him a view of torment before he could be brought to repentance.

MRS. ELLIOTT SUCCESSFUL AT ACADEMY.

Mrs. R. C. Elliott, who has charge of the school at the academy, below Pikeville, is enjoying great success, and it is said that school is much better and having a larger attendance than ever before. Mrs. Elliott has been a teacher for many years, and of late she has been highly successful.

She has purchased a supply of wire and is having the school fenced in, and will further beautify the grounds by setting out shade trees.

COAL RUN LUMBER PLANT WORKING.

The village of Coal Run is becoming the center of a considerable lumber industry. Muth Bros. have bought extensive walnut and ash timber holdings in the neighborhood of Coal Run, and the saw mill belonging to Wade Cassidy which was formerly on Lykins creek has been moved to Coal Run, and already the mill is turning out a big supply of lumber, the yard being constantly full and shipments going out daily.
